CHARITIES.

THE SERVANTS OF RELIEF FOR INCURABLE CANCER, THE SERVANTS OF RELIEF FOR INCURABLE CANCER, to whom the citizens of New York have lately given the large new St. Rose's Free Home, at Jackson St., New York, have had a year's work of prosperous efficiency, an average of fifty or more men and women, destitute and in the last stages of cancer, being harbored at a time. The charity exists only by gifts of money and by legacies, and, as it now has two large Homes, one in the country, the dependence upon the remembrance and generosity of friends of the poor is most urgent, and has lately resembled the call by wireless which is sawing somany lives. In the hope of obtaining aupport by domations of a periodical type which will aid the large expenses of carrying on the two Homes, holding altogethey one hundred or more destitute men and women, with their attendant Sister nurses, this advertisement is presented. Rosary Hill Home, the Mother house, and St. Rose's Free Home, in New York, require a total of $50,000 a year for the proper care of the patients. Donations should be addressed to MOTHER M.
